U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and, after due and sufficient notice of the Late Claim Motions, there being no pending objections to the requested relief; and the Ad Hoc Group of Individual Victims (the “PI Group”) having consented to the relief sought in the response of the Debtors and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Creditors’ Committee”) to the Late Claim Motions; and, after due deliberation and for the reasons set forth on the record of the hearing on the Late Claim Motions held on August 17, 2022, including the need for the Court to make an informed decision on the Late Claim Motions based on, among other things, the number of similarly-situated claimants who may subsequently seek to assert late claims in these chapter 11 cases (“Future Late Claim Motions”) and whether allowing the Late Claims as timely would open the floodgates to additional late claims against the Debtors and prejudice the estates, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. A decision on the Late Claim Motions will be postponed until the first omnibus hearing held at least 21 days after entry by the Court of a final order approving the Debtors’ chapter 11 plan of reorganization, as may be modified; provided that the Movants shall receive at least 21 days’ notice of that hearing.

2. Upon notice of the hearing to consider the Late Claim Motions, the Movants may, but are not required to, submit supplemental briefing with respect to the relief requested in the Late Claim Motions, including, without limitation, why they should be permitted to file a proof of claim after the Extended General Bar Date, and the Debtors, the Creditors’ Committee, and the PI Group will have an opportunity to respond to any such supplemental briefing; provided that no party will be able to argue that the Late Claim Motions should be denied based on the postponement of the hearing to consider the Late Claim Motions.

3. The relief provided for herein applies only to the Late Claim Motions, and nothing in this Order shall in any way be construed as applying to any other late claim motions, including any Future Late Claim Motions that may be filed, as to which all rights are reserved, notwithstanding that the Debtors may seek the Court's approval of a process whereby (a) a decision on Future Late Claim Motions is postponed and scheduled for resolution at the same time as the Late Claim Motions, and (b) individuals filing Future Late Claim Motions will be given the same notice and opportunity to file supplemental briefing as the Movants (as set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2) .

4. Except as expressly set forth in this Order, nothing contained herein shall be an admission or waiver of the substantive or procedural rights, remedies, claims, or defenses of any of the parties in these chapter 11 cases, whether at law or equity.

5. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to effectuate the relief granted in this Order.

6. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.
